FIMM COMPUTERISED PRIVATE RETIREMENT SCHEME EXAMINATION (CPRE)

General and Features of CPRE

- The Manual Private Retirement Scheme Examination (Manual PRE) was introduced since 2012. With the aim to enhance efficiency in registration and administration of PRS Examination, Federation of Investment Managers Malaysia (FIMM) is pleased to announce the implementation plan of CPRE.

In addition to paperless examination environment that enables more examination sessions (frequency) and better spread of locations for examination centers nationwide, CPRE also provides examination result to candidates immediately after completing their examination session.

- Apart from the above improvements, most of the features of Manual PRE remained no change upon computerization as follows:

Features	CPRE	Manual PRE
Geographical Coverage	12 states and Federal Territory	11 states and Federal Territory
Number of sessions in an examination day	Three (3) sessions: 09:00 to 10:30 12:00 to 13:30 15:00 to 16:30	Generally one (1) session per examination day
Syllabus	Same syllabus
Duration	90 minutes
Examination format	60 multiple-choice questions
Examination language	Bahasa Malaysia, English and Chinese
Passing mark	70%

In line with the implementation of CPRE, documents to be circulated to Candidates taking CPRE will be different from those taking Manual PRE as follows:

Features	CPRE	Manual PRE
a) Navigational guides to Candidates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Navigational Guides to Candidates summarizes key features of CPRE system and important steps in assessing and navigate the examination session within the examination system. A copy of Navigational Guides to Candidates can be downloaded from the following link: https://www.fimm.com.my/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/CPRE-Navigational-Guide.pdf 	Not applicable.
b) Notes to Candidates	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Notes to Candidates prescribe do's and don'ts in taking CPRE, pertaining to admission and attendance, as well as conducts, examination results and appeal. A copy can be downloaded from FIMM Website via the following link: https://www.fimm.com.my/wp-content/uploads/2018/08/Notes-to-CPRE-Candidates.pdf 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Notes to Candidates prescribe do's and don'ts in taking Manual PRE pertaining to admission and attendance, as well as conducts, examination results and appeal. 4. PRS Providers and Distributors are reminded to ensure that a copy each of the guides/notes will be made available/distributed to the candidates. PRS Providers and Distributors should also endeavor to ensure that your candidates read and understand the notes/guides prior to attending CPRE. Feedback received by FIMM suggested that informed candidates demonstrated greater confidence which put them in a relatively better position to complete examination at ease without unwarranted interruptions.

Implementation plan

5. CPRE will be implemented in two (2) phases according to locations as follows:

a) Phase 1 (Klang Valley)

	Johor		Kuantan
	Ipoh		Kota Kinabalu
	Sungai Petani		Tawau
	Miri		Seremban
December 2018	Kuching		Kota Bahru
	Kuala Trengganu
	Sibu

Details on actual date and center locations for Q4 of 2018 for both CPRE and Manual PRE will be issued soon.

8. Effective 1 January 2019, the Manual PRE will be ceased and only CPRE will be offered to candidates taking PRS examination.

Registration of Candidates for CPRE

7. As part of FIMM's efforts in optimizing examination related resources as well as minimizing coordinating efforts among members and distributors, FIMM examination center will be upgraded to run both Computerized Unit Trust Examination (CUTE) and CPRE concurrently. The registration will be based on first-come, first-served basis. As always, FIMM will continue to monitor the take up rate of seats at the respective FIMM examination centers and will add additional sessions in advance to cater for
